Senator B. T. Gunter nominated Mr. Wescott, and in opening laid stress upon the importance of having the judge on the Eastern Shore instead of this side of the bay.

Mr. Gunter eloquently portrayed the ability and accomplishments of Mr. Wescott, and declared that he possessed every requisite for an able and upright judge.

Senator Parks, of Page, seconded Mr. Wescott's nomination, and declared that he was the right man for the place. The speaker had served with him in the late Constitutional Convention, and he asserted that there was no man on the floor of that body who was superior to him in the matter of ability.

Mr. Wescott was dropped Robinson for the Montague in a brief speech, and there were loud cries of "Vote!" "Vote!"

Judge Mann spoke for Mr. Mears, and the cry of "Vote!" broke out again. He was followed by Mr. Rew, who seed onded the nomination of Mr. Mears. He said he regretted to oppose Mr. Wescott, who was his countyman, but he conceived it to be his duty to support the candidate who was indoored by a majority of the bar of Accomac. Mr. Rew referred to Mr. Mears as the follow for Northampton and the pride of Accomac. He realized that wounds were about to be made which might never he healed, but he intended to do his duty as he saw it regardless of political consequences. Mr. Oliver seconded the nomination of Mr. Mears, and Mr. Edwards spoke briefly for Judge Montague.

Mr. Wescott was dropped Robinson and Robinson first time, Mesrs, and Robinson and Robinson of the Montague the bulk of the Montague Early, Echols, Edmonson, Edwards, Early, Echols, Edmonson, Edwards, Early, Echols, Edmonson, Edwards, Edward, Good, Gravatt, Green, Gunter, Hall, Halsey, Harman, Hart, Hobbs, Hospits, Edmonson, Edwards, Early, Echols, Edmonson, Edwards, Early, Echols, Edmonson, Edwards, Edward, Spoke, Gox, Dunn, Otherwood, Clarke, Cooke, Cox, Dunn, Chitwood, Clarke, Cooke, Cox, Dunn, Chitw

Mr. West moved to take a recess for lunch. The caucus refused to do this, and pandemonium broke loose on the floor, members moving from one to another in an effort to land for some other candidate the votes of Judge Montague, whose name was now dropped.

The second ballot resulted—Mears, 188; Robinson, 23; Wescott, 29, Mr. Mears was apparent before the roil call was renominated.

Another motion to adjourn was made and refered aver the roses.

The Final Ballot.

There was so much disorder on the floor that Senator Lassiter moved to go into executive session. Capitain Parks, who was presiding temporarily, finally got the body to some extent quieted, and the third ballet was taken with the following result: Montague, 19; Wescott, 38; Robinson, 45.

It was now 2 o'clock, and the caucus agreed to a motion to take a recess until 4 P. M., after there had been a good deal of protesting by some of the members.

Afternoon Session.

It was 4:05 P. M. when Chairman Dhurchman called the afternoon session to order.

ENTIRELY CURED IN 2 MONTHS BY CUTICURA

"When my son Walter was three weeks old, eczema appeared on his face. We did not know what it was so went to a doctor who treated him for three months. Then he was so bad that his face and head were nothing but one ser and his ears looked as if they were going to fall off, so we tried another doctor. He said he could cure him and we doctored there four months, the baby never getting any hetter. His hand and legs then had big sores on them and as for his sleeping, we could not think of it, the poor little fellow suffered so terribly. First I tied his hands to the crib to keep him from scratching, but when it got so bad I tied him in a shawl or he would scratch himself all bloody. When he was seven months old we tried a set of the Cuticura Remedies. The first application of Cuticura let him sleep and rest well, in one week the sores were gone but it stayed red and sometimes it would lich so wo used Cuticura for two months, then he had a clear and white face. Now he is two years and seven months old and has never had eczema again. I hope this letter will help some who are suffering from skin classase. Every mother who has a baby suffering with skin disease should just try Cuticura; there is nothing better. Mrs. Louis Beck, R. F. D. 3. San Antonio, Tex., Apr. 15, '07.'

TO CHANGE RATES

Mr. Davis laid much stress on the fact during the cross-examination of witnesses that if the Carolina rate was it would be a discrimination against Charlotte, Raleigh and Greensboro, in-asmuch as they could not compate with their State neighbors a few miles away. He did not exactly succeed, however, in securing the admission that the reduction would be absorbed by the whole-

Southern Railway, will be the principal witnesses.

"We will be able to show the commission," said one of the lawyers to night, "that a change in the rates would be a far greater injustice to Virginia than that supposed to prevail against North Carolina under the present (ariff arrangement. To reduce it would put local points in the gateway class, to the serious injury of the Virginia cities which have intervened."

Representatives of every railroad in the Southern territory and of lines as far West as Chicago are here. They admit that any modification in the tariff at the instance of Winston-Salem and Durham would upset the whole rate question from Western points to the South.
